Part 5: Facebook Messenger Ads

Facebook Ads used to be Amazing! I spent the last +5 years talking about them!

But Then Facebook Jacked Up the Prices...

Facebook ad prices are rising after the News Feed change

Kevin Tran Mar. 8, 2018, 10:11 AM

CPMs Have Gone from $1 to +$100
in Last 6 Years.

This story was delivered to BI Intelligence "Digital Media Briefing" subscribers hours before appearing on Business Insider. To be the first to know, please click here.

The cost of Facebook ads has increased further since the platform tweaked its News Feed algorithm to de-prioritize publisher content, according to data from ad tech company AdStage per Recode.

Facebook announced the News Feed tweak in January, and AdStage found that CPMs (cost per thousand ad impressions) increased 122% year-over-year (YoY) in that month. In comparison, CPMs increased 45% YoY in January 2017.
